

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

SOLOMON WILLIAMS, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

THE BOEING COMPANY, et al.,

Defendants.

No. C98-761P

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE
COMPENSATION
ANALYSES AND RELATED MATERIALS

This matter comes before the Court on Defendants' motion in limine to exclude compensation analyses and related materials. (Dkt. No. 941). The Court DENIES Defendants' motion.

Because compensation discrimination claims are no longer included in this proceeding, Defendants argue that the Court should bar evidence relating to Boeing projects designed to analyze Boeing's compensation and salary-setting process. Defendants identify 29 specific documents that it seeks to exclude. Plaintiffs maintain that it would be improper to bar an entire category of documents and argue that many of the specific documents identified by Defendants' contain information that may be relevant to their promotion discrimination claim. Plaintiffs maintain that they do not intend to publish to the jury portions of the documents that do not
